4 Public Safety Committee Overview

How can the DTLB create a vibrant, safe Downtown with active public spaces to draw new and support existing visitors and businesses?

- Develop communications campaign to address misperceptions of Public Safety
- Share information among safety agencies operating in the Downtown

6. 2023-2024 Committee Projects

Project #1: Fresh Start-

Project #2: Safety Walk Audit-

Project #3: Resource Guide-

Issue	DLBA	Police Depart.	LB Health and Human Services	City Prosecutor	Long Beach Public Works	State Gov	Recommendations
Encampments on private property	Outreach with individuals and offer resources. Ask to move and call PD if needed.	LBPD will offer services. If services are refused PD will ask person to leave/ distribute citation	PD	Owners should ask camper to leave (this should be documented) If campers refuse to leave then this is TRESPASSING, Penal code 602. If inside building then it is squatting, Penal Code 602m			*Install signage for No loitering/No trespassing (include penal code) so that LBPD can enforce * Consider developing a mutually beneficial relationship with the unhoused camper
Encampment on public property	Outreach with individuals and offer resources. Ask to move. If no success, reach out to LBPD QOL team for assistance.		Outreach team request to engagement.
