Motion: 1st: Krieger 2nd: Woods
VOTE: None opposed. No abstentions. Motion passes.
3. Chairperson Report – Welch
 - a. Discussion of Committee Project Goals and Milestones
 - Welch informed the committee that Sheila Gibbons will no longer be on the public safety committee due to personal reasons.
 - i. Fresh Start Donation Campaign (Gibbons)
 - Coward advised he will make modifications on the script and share with the working group.
 - Friend volunteered to take lead on the fresh start donation program with support from Woods.
 - Welch advised that the original dates for milestones should be moved up a month due to delays.
 - ii. Scooters and Pedestrian Safety (Krieger)
 - Krieger confirmed meeting with the working group on Friday January 28th at 11am.
 - Krieger asked if Coward can report on an ADA access issue due to construction on Ocean and Pacific, Coward said he would reach out to Heather who is the ADA officer for Long Beach.
 - Coward added that he reached out to Fern Nueno and Tony Cruz for potentially meeting with Krieger regarding scooter safety.
 - Krieger advised he will be out of the country from 4/9-7/9 but will continue to meet with the committee if the time difference allows.
 - Coward advised that the safety ambassadors pick up scooters that have been knocked over or placed in pedestrian walkways, however, are unable to move them to the designated drop off areas.
 - Goodin said there shouldn't be scooter drop off zones on Ocean Blvd due to not being able to drive them on this street with the set speed limit.
