Dispute Resolution and Governing Law:

- a. Any dispute concerning the construction, validity, interpretation and enforceability of these Official Rules, contestant's rights and obligations, or the rights and obligations of DLBA in connection with the contest, must be brought through Mediation first and then Arbitration as set forth herein. Venue shall be in Long Beach, Los Angeles County, California.
- b. The Parties agree to first mediate any dispute or claim arising between them out of this Agreement before resorting to arbitration or court action. Mediation fees, if any, shall be paid by the Parties equally. If for any dispute or claim to which this section applies, any party (i) commences an action without first attempting to resolve the matter through mediation, or (ii) before commencement of an action, refuses to mediate after a request to do so has been made, then that party shall not be entitled to recover attorney fees, even if they would otherwise be available to that party in any such action.

- c. The Parties agree that any dispute or claim in law or equity arising between them out of any entry to DTLB Unfiltered, which is not settled through mediation, shall be decided by neutral, binding arbitration through the American Arbitration Association, as the exclusive remedy for such controversy, claim or dispute. Arbitration fees, if any, shall be paid by the Parties equally. In any such arbitration, the Parties may conduct discovery to the same extent as would be permitted in a court of law. The arbitrator shall issue a reasoned, written decision, and shall have full authority to award all remedies, which would be available in court. Any judgment upon the award rendered by the arbitrator(s) may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. Possible disputes covered by the above include (but are not limited to) contract claims, tort claims, copyright infringement claims, infringement on the common law right of publicity, or otherwise. Thus, this bilateral arbitration agreement fully applies to any and all claims the Parties may have against one another. However, claims where mandatory arbitration is prohibited by law are not covered by this arbitration agreement, and either Party may present such claims to the appropriate court.
- d. BY AGREEING TO THIS BINDING ARBITRATION PROVISION, EACH PARTY WAIVES ITS RESPECTIVE RIGHTS TO A TRIAL BY JURY. THIS WAIVER SHALL APPLY TO ANY SUBSEQUENT AMENDMENTS, RENEWALS, SUPPLEMENTS, OR MODIFICATIONS OF THESE CONTEST RULES.
- e. This arbitration provision is to be construed as broadly as is permissible under applicable law.
- f. Governing law: All issues and questions concerning the construction, validity, interpretation and enforceability of these Official Rules, contestant's rights and obligations, or the rights and obligations of DLBA in connection with the contest, shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of State of California.
